Aspe is a traditional Spanish town with an agricultural heritage that offers a phenomenal quality of life for its gastronomy and local town amenities. It has a strong community and feels a bit like stepping back in time, however, depending on the time of day it is bustling with people of all ages, for family life it is a great place to enjoy the outdoor lifestyle.

Of architectural interest in the centre of Aspe are many traditional buildings, you will see the Basilica de Nuestra Señora del Socorro which is a beautiful example of the evolution of architectural styles in the 17th century.

Aspe is approximately 25 minutes drive from Alicante airport, 30 minutes drive from Alicante city and 15 minutes drive from the historic city of Elche with it's many beautiful attractions, there are also many beautiful small villages such as Hondon de los Nieves, Hondon de los Frailes la Romana and vineyards to discover within a short distance of aspe as well as spectacular countryside and mountain views.
